Suggestions for Use:

For use during personal development (ritual, incantations, dreamtime, visualisation, journeying), distant healing or group development

Use as a self-care tool and spray in the bath water.

Use in the morning before going for a walk-in nature, or in the late evening for connecting with the moon and stars (especially Sirius B).

How to Use:

Gently tap the underneath of your Isis Temple bottle 3 times and take a moment to connect inwards and ask Goddess Isis how you would like her to help you (please note: the spoken word is more powerful than the thought). Once actioned, close your eyes and spray above your head/ crown, creating an inverted pyramid shape overhead. As you sense the droplets falling, sweep the droplets down the front of your body, take another deep breath, and breathe the droplets. If you feel that here is something from your past that you would like to work with then spray and sweep the back of your body. Another suggestion would be to spray an infinity sign at the heart centre and sweep the droplets outwards over your outstretched arms to create the winged effect of Isis – (see label on bottle).

Each 100ml bottle contains Avalon and Dartmoor water, red shiso and glacial alcohol.
