

Elvin Light

This dancing energy shares its ethereal connections with you so gently, at times you may double check yourself to see if that impression was real or not. The Light and song of the Elven is very much real and present as we step forward with the New Earth to a whole new way of living. These droplets are filled with such elemental presence from these water codes of language from the Elven ones. This water memory assists us in expanding our hearts and reaching out to the 'Shining ones' of the Stars and Earth for their wisdom and guidance.

The Elven Light touch purifies us to be more present with each other, with our natural surroundings, the Sprits of animals and plants, the stones, the Elders even the Archangels, to connect on a deeper more meaningful way moment by moment. Remember your imagination as a child, or moments that touched you so that your paused in wonder with what you were witnessing? These are examples of potential doorways for the magical flows to arrive with you. To touch and move you and open y/our hearts to the capacity of Love, which is the currency of our whole Universe. On another level these droplet codes of connectivity share upgrades that assists with deep inner transformation whilst also holding the potential to link in with other dimensions too.

Like the luminous white floating clouds that are airy and free, this energy subtly touches you and reminds you of many forgotten qualities that you hold inside of you, especially within the temple of y/our heart(s). Water flows collected from the White and Red Spring and the Mother Spring of Avalon. Added to the ancient flows of Dartmoor, these waters have been part of connecting with higher dimensional travelling, including to the Pleiades Star System.

These cosmic connections that translates to very high frequency or jubilant singing, to visualisations and receiving messages and heart impressions in a very elegant way. This was during a Pleiades alignment, a Solstice and a whole Eclipse season, where the final third of the water memory was placed outside by the sea under the partial lunar eclipse. The waters have been present with the high vibrations of many Star Elfin Crystals, with scribed glyphs, fine artwork together with river stones in colours of silver and teal. The waters have also visited the loving and grounding presence of the Elven Tree Portal, found at the base of Glastonbury Tor.

The scented notes of Mimosa, Galbanum and Narcissus provide an array of uplifting evergreen notes to add to the mysterious energy effect from the water memory. Whilst the finishing note is from a drop of Electrolyte, that passes on the balancing grounding effect to the whole energy field.

With prayers and intentions Elven Light waters supports:

- you with an energetic transmission of radiant and timeless wisdom.
- an array of phenomenal, vibrational colours that shares their frequencies within the energy field.
- a light body expansion from the star light absorbed by this water, shares powerful and subtle qualities which assists you to express yourself with Joy and in turn share this with the crystalline song of the New Earth.
- to connect with the Cosmic and New Earthly Rhythms.
- receive the Elven purity codes for the temple of the Heart, the capacity of Love and the true self.
- children storytelling at bedtime.
- to lift above usual worries and cares and feel free like the air.
- to connect with the gifts that you carry inside with the dreams and a destiny that is waiting for you.

I am ever grateful to the Elven guide team, to Sue Coulson of Cosmic Classroom who has steered many beautiful meditations from Avebury that connected with the High Elven race. To Ellen Tompkins who ignited my curiosity many years ago. I enclose heart gratitude to Leanne and Michiel of Lemurain Starchild who personally shared with me the Elven Tree Portal located on the Tor of Glastonbury. Lastly, to Phillippe Ullens who created my three Star Elven Crystals who have in turn encouraged this creation. I am ever grateful for the co-creation. Thank you so so much.
